

PPP Conference 2024: People, Space and Belonging

Programme

9:00 Refreshments on arrival

10.00 Opening keynote

Eleanor Jupp (University of Kent)

Jeni Vine (Belong - The Cohesion and Integration Network)

11.00 Break

11:15 Session 1A: Health equity

Spaces of equality: Exploring the role of universal healthcare for social trust and the support for redistribution

Tobias Schillings (University of Oxford)

Mesothelioma caused by asbestos in UK schools and hospitals: an ongoing public health risk

Bethany Taylor, Peter Allmark and Angela Tod (University of Sheffield)

Understanding the persistence of value problems in third sector delivery of health services: evidence from the implementation of 'Green Social Prescribing' in the English NHS

Chris Dayson and Cathy Harris (Sheffield Hallam University)

11:15 Session 1B: Space and estates

Wembley Park: Experiences of Community and Belonging

Sara Rodriguez (University of London)

Changing Places: Abandonment, Invasion and Community Development at a Regenerating/Degenerating London Council Estate

Paul Watt (London School of Economics)

The Dynamics of Belonging in UK Park Home Communities (Working paper)

Robert Amato Lastman (Kingston University London)

11:15

Session 1c: Cost of living

Falling behind on payments for household bills: Exploring temporal trends in the extent to which UK individuals have experienced this form of debt since 2009 and the characteristics of indebted individuals over time

Maya Middleton-Welch and Mark Green (University of Liverpool)

TBC

12:30

Lunch

13:15

Session 2A: Gender and work

Exploring the impact of childcare provision on the opportunities for women garment workers and their families in Bangladesh

Gulfam Tasnim (The Open University)

The Scylla State. A gendered understanding of the experiences of marginalised women in the United Kingdom

Rebecca Hamer (Sheffield Hallam University)

13:15

Session 2B: Fringes and forms of belonging

Agents of dis(belonging)

Temidayo Eseonu (Lancaster University)

What hidden and hiding homelessness can tell us about people, space and belonging among homeless populations

Elisabeth Garratt (University of Sheffield)

Associational Life: how to understand social life in an individualised and informalized society

David Bomark (University of Strathclyde)

13:15

Session 2c: Panel session - University policy engagement - a critical exploration and examination

Convener: Peter Wells (Sheffield Hallam University)

14:30	Refreshments
15:00	Session 3a: Housing equity  Resilience and Inequality in the UK Housing System: The Scarring Effects of Post-2000 Economic Shocks on Housing Insecurity Rhiannon Williams (University of Sheffield) What Innovative Housing Models Can Be Developed to Address the Increasing Housing Difficulties Faced by Young People in the UK Dean Ireland (Northumbria University) Empty Homes and Sheffield Yahya Aydin (University of Sheffield and Ankara Yildirim Beyazıt University) and Rowland Atkinson (University of Sheffield)
15:00	Session 3b: Equity and environment  Agri-food decarbonisation pathways, just transitions and SMEs Elpida Apostolopoulou and William Eadson (Sheffield Hallam University) Active travel equity: shifting focus from distributive analysis to the recognition of marginalised mobility experiences Mia Rafalowicz-Campbell (Sheffield Hallam University) Title TBC Aimee Ambrose (Sheffield Hallam University)
15:00	Session 3c: Policy and change  From Rhetoric to Policy: Tracing the Evolution of “Pride in Place” within the Levelling Up Agenda Marc Le Chevallier (University of West London) Who cares about the voluntary sector? Oluwaferanmi Adeyemo, Peter Wells, Chris Damm, Elizabeth Sanderson (Sheffield Hallam University)
16:30	Break
16:45	Closing session Details to be confirmed
17:30+	Conference social

Strand guide

Sessions are categorised by three strands, which can be identified using the colour guide below:

 1. Access, equity and justice

 2. Experiences of belonging, identity and citizenship

 3. Governance of transformative change